

Pathways available

Pathway	Consider this pathway if	Accreditation
AoF Training	... you want to be trained in facilitation ... at one of three levels	Self and Peer Assessment and Accreditation (SAPA) Accreditation against FACETS® is integrated into all AoF training programmes. Foundations Certification Diploma Short courses provide credit towards accreditation.
Non-AoF Training	... you have undertaken facilitation training with another organization which we have already recognised as equivalent to ours in competencies, standards, and outcomes.	Application Submission: Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL) Full credit, or part-credit, is awarded using the FACETS® framework
Practitioner Accreditation	... you require no formal training (or no more formal training) ... you have experience as a facilitator and are able to provide evidence	Portfolio and Interview at Accreditation Day: Accreditation of Prior Experience and Learning (APeL) Preparation of portfolio. Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL) and Accreditation of Prior Experience and Learning (APeL) will be used to award full or part credit The focus will be on highlighting the basis of the applicant's claim against AoFs FACETS and Generic Competence frameworks.
Experienced Practitioner Accreditation	... your approach and practice as a facilitator is well-established and evidenced e.g. publications, public recognition, contribution to the facilitation profession.	Interview Review of contribution and rationale for aligning with AoF's advancement of the facilitation profession.